GENERAL ORDER:

NO: 04-04

Oct 28 2004

I. AUTHORITY: Approval of the Director, Defense Logistics Agency

II. REFERENCES:

- A. HQ DLA General Order Number 12-03, dated October 1, 2003
- B. HQ DLA General Order Number 4-02, date July 14, 2002
- C. HQ DLA General Order Number 8-00, dated September 11, 2000

III. Pursuant to cited authority and effective October 3, 2004, Logistics Operation (J-3) is reorganized as follows:

A. Business Modernization and Integration (J-35) is established. Business Modernization (J-32), and Business Management (J-38) are disestablished and their missions, responsibilities, and resources transferred to J-35.

1. Business Modernization (J-351) is established. J-351 is responsible for transformation of logistics policies, practices, processes, methods and metrics to align with commercial business systems.

2. Resources and Requirements (J-352) is established. J-352 is responsible for developing and implementing an integrated business and resource plan for J-3 headquarters and field operating activities.

3. Planning, Assessment and Integration (J-353) is established. J-353 is responsible for developing, and assessing performance against, long range logistics plans.

4. Supply Chain Integration and Management (J-354) is established under J-35. Mission functions for Executive Agent are transferred from J-444 to J-354. Customer engagement and readiness functions associated with Executive Agent will remain with J-4. J-354 provides policy, strategic guidance and direction for end-to-end supply chain integration for the eight DLA supply chains.

5. Operations Research (J-355) is established J-35. J-355 integrates operations research efforts across the enterprise.

B. Business Development and Supply Chain Integration Division (J-371) is disestablished. National Inventory Management function and resources are transferred to J-33. Distribution transformation functions and resources are transferred to J-373.

C. National Inventory Management (J-333) is established as a division under Acquisition, Technical and Supply (J-33). J-333 serves as the focal point and is responsible for developing, evaluating, promulgating, and ensuring implementation of process, policy, and procedural guidance related to the National Inventory Management Strategy and Retail Integration Initiatives with DLA.

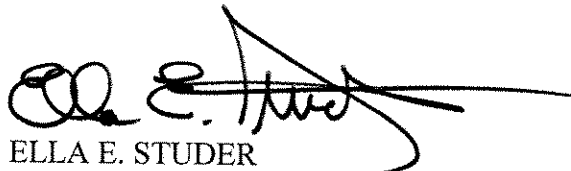

D. Mission functions for Military Services' weapon system support improvement initiatives such as performance based logistics (PBL), contractor logistics support (CLS), total life cycle systems management (TLCSM), and reduction of total ownership costs (R-TOC) are transferred from J-442 to J-331. Customer engagement and readiness functions associated with those programs will remain with J-4.

E. Distribution Planning and Transformation Branch (J-3734) is established as a branch under Distribution Management Division. J-3734 serves as the focal point within Logistics Operations for stock positioning and supply chain initiatives dealing with distribution.

IV. Funding will be realigned effective October 3, 2004. Administrative support will be provided by HQ organizations, as appropriate.
